

Background information

Forsyth Music Shop

For almost 150 years the name of Forsyth has been synonymous with the supply of quality musical merchandise and helpful knowledgeable advice. Forsyth is owned and operated by the founding family that is now in its fifth generation.

As one of the largest musical retailers in the country it has an unrivalled selection of goods and services on offer. The shop comprises over 15,000 sq ft over 5 floors on one of the premiere shopping streets in Manchester.

The shop is historically grounded in classical music however increasingly embraces all genres.

Forsyth supplies:

- Pianos - over 130 new pianos and 50 second hand in stock including Schimmel, Yamaha, Bechstein, Steinway, Kemble and Kawai
- Digital pianos and keyboards over 40 models on display by Roland, Yamaha, Casio and Kawai
- Instruments - beginners to professional, including an extensive range of guitars (classical, acoustic and electric), woodwind, brass, strings, percussion etc.
- Accessories - everything from valve oil to music stands and metronomes
- Sheet music - over 30,000 titles, including a wide range of school materials and orchestral scores
- Music Books - Large selection of specialist music books
- Music Software - We stock Sibelius, Finale and other programmes
- Recorded music - specialising in classical, jazz and world music
- Music Minus One - orchestral accompaniments and sheet music for instruments and vocals
- Pocket Songs - over 14,000 karaoke backing tracks including shows etc.
- Forsyth publications – over 450 titles specialising in recorder, piano teaching and theory music.

We also provide various services including: Piano tuning, Piano hire, Piano repair, Instrument hire, instrument repair and a school instrument rental scheme

Forsyth also has a comprehensive mail order service. It is also developing its web site for e-commerce as well as a general 'shop front' for the business.

Forsyth is an equal opportunities employer.